TERRY CAMPAIGN TAPS CHUCK MAXWELL FOR CATHOLIC PRO-LIFE OUTREACH

The Terry for Congress campaign today appointed a life-long Democrat, Mr. Chuck Maxwell, to direct their grassroots outreach to pro-life Catholic voters.

Chuck Maxwell, 73, is a life-long Omaha resident who served for 18 years as an administrator at Creighton University. He and his family worship at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church. Maxwell is well-known and respected throughout the Omaha-area Catholic community.

"I cannot tell you how delighted I am that Chuck Maxwell is joining our campaign," Congressman Terry said. "He is well-known throughout the 2nd District for his involvement with the Catholic community. Chuck is also strongly pro-life. I am honored to be affiliated with him."

Terry's campaign manager, Dave Boomer, said "Chuck's conscience and the plain facts clearly dictate that Lee Terry is the candidate who matches up to the Catholic definition of pro-life. With Chuck's help and leadership, I am confident that Lee Terry is on track to win a heavy majority of the Catholic pro-life vote."

Mr. Maxwell will be volunteering his time and effort to Terry's campaign.

"Lee Terry has always been there for pro-life voters. Now it is time for us to be there for him on Election Day," Maxwell said.

Maxwell's son, Chip, is a former State Senator and current member of the Douglas County Board of Commissioners.

Chuck Maxwell has been married 47 years to his wife, Mary. They have five children and 12 grandchildren.
